

Paul D. Jacob

Career Summary and Highlights:

2000-Present

President, Edison Mission Marketing and Trading, Boston, MA
Vice-President, Edison Mission Energy

- Responsible for overall management of Commercial Function for one of the largest merchant generation portfolios in the United States
- Responsible for hedging, trading and marketing activities
- P&L responsibility for unit as well as overall income responsibility for primary commodity exposures

1993-2000

Various to Executive Vice President, Citizens Power LLC
Boston, MA

- Responsible for building one of the first independent electricity trading operations in the United States at Citizens Power and Light in 1993
- Continued in management through the formation of Citizens Lehman Power, a partnership entity
- Grew and developed the trading and marketing organization to remain one of the top-ranked power marketers in the US
- Key member of management through subsequent LBO as part of Peabody Coal in 1998
- Continued to grow and develop commercial operations throughout this period, remaining a top-ranked independent marketer with total sales over $2 billion annually in spite of a lack of asset positions or substantial equity

1991-1993

Director of Regulatory Affairs, Citizens National Gas Company
Boston, MA

- Responsible for FERC representation in rate cases for Citizens National Gas Company, a partnership between Citizens Gas Supply Corp and National Fuel
- Part of management team for sale of Citizens National Gas to Western Gas Resources in 1993

Paul D. Jacob 504 Brush Hill Road Milton, MA 02186 (617) 333-6811

1989-1990 Paralegal, Karger and Arnowitz
Boston, MA

- Responsible for legal drafting and client contact for small bankruptcy and creditors rights firm while attending law school

1985-1989 Owner, WOOD Enterprises
Brooklyn, NY

- Small high end architectural woodworking and furniture partnership
- Responsible for marketing and business end of operation along with operations and execution
- Subcontractor for residential and small commercial work
- Sold partnership interest

Education:

B.F.A. Rhode Island School of Design, 1983
Attended Suffolk University School of Law, 1989-1990

Public Speaking:

Northwest Public Power Association
Northeast Public Power Association
Cooperative Finance Corp Annual Finance Symposium
Risk Magazine: Power and Risk Conference
CoalTrans Annual Conference
Japanese American Coal Conference
Harvard Electricity Policy Group
Various Conferences (Infocast)